ORGANIZERS

IQAC Shyam Lal College (Evening), University of Delhi

Shyam Lal College (SLC), a co-educational constituent college of the University of Delhi, was established in 1964 by the great visionary and entrepreneur Padmashree (late) Shri Shyam Lal Gupta, the then Chairman of Shyam Lal charitable trust. The foundation stone of the college was laid down by Dr. Zakir Hussain, the then Hon'ble Vice President of India and Chancellor of the University of Delhi. The aim of the college, at the time of inception, was to make quality education accessible to the students, especially girls, from the economically and educationally disadvantaged community of East Delhi. Since its establishment in 1964, SLC has come a long way and has become a centre of academic excellence in University of Delhi. The college, in its effort to maximize the teaching learning outcome, has established five important Centres that offer unique platform and opportunity to the students to have a wholesome learning experience

As per National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) guidelines every accredited institution should establish an Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) as a post-accreditation quality sustenance measure. Since quality enhancement is a continuous process, the IQAC becomes a part of the institution's system and works towards realization of the goals of quality enhancement and sustenance.

CALL FOR PAPERS

The International Conference on "Viksit Bharat @ 2047" aims to explore and discuss the vision of a developed India by the year 2047, coinciding with the 100th anniversary of India's independence. This conference brings together policymakers, academics, industry leaders, and experts from around the world to engage in thought-provoking discussions on the nation's progress and future trajectory. The event will focus on key sectors such as economic growth, technological innovation, unending development, education, healthcare, infrastructure, and social welfare, all integral to realizing the vision of a prosperous and self-reliant India.

The conference is not merely an academic gathering; it represents a collective commitment to realizing India's potential as a global leader. It aligns with Prime Minister Narendra Modi's vision of transforming India into a developed nation through strategic investments in infrastructure, education, and social equity. As such, it seeks to inspire action among all stakeholders to contribute towards this ambitious goal.

Through thematic sessions, presentations, and panel discussions, the conference will address challenges and opportunities that India faces on its path to becoming a global leader by 2047. Participants will explore strategies for fostering inclusive growth, enhancing global partnerships, and promoting national unity.
